Purpose

This policy ensures that Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) meets its legal and ethical requirements in regard to the collection, storage and disclosure of the personal information it holds in regards to individuals. This policy and procedure contributes to compliance with Clause 8.5 of the Standards.

Definitions

ASQA means Australian Skills Quality Authority, the national VET regulator and the RTO's registering body

Personal information means 'information or an opinion about an identified individual, or an individual who is reasonably identifiable:

- 'Whether the information or opinion is true or not; and
- 'Whether the information or opinion is recorded in a material form or not.¹

Standards means the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015 from the VET Quality Framework which can be accessed at www.asqa.gov.au

Policy

1. Privacy Principles

Personal information is collected from individuals in order that Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) can carry out its business functions. Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) only collects and stores information that is directly related to its business purposes and legal requirements of providing nationally recognised training and assessment.

In collecting personal information, Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) complies with the requirements set out in the Privacy Act 1988 and the relevant privacy legislation and regulations of the states and territories in which the RTO operates.

This means Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) ensures each individual:

- Knows why their information is being collected, how it will be used and who it will be disclosed to.
- Is able to access their personal information upon request.
- Does not receive unwanted direct marketing.
- Can ask for personal information that is incorrect to be corrected.
- Can make a complaint about Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) if you consider that your personal information has been mishandled.

2. Collection of information

¹ Definition from: Australian Government. Privacy Act 1988 (Cth). Accessed on 5th January 2014 at http://www.comlaw.gov.au/Details/C2014C00076/Html/Text#_Toc382302897

In general personal information will be collected through course application and/or enrolment forms, training records, assessment records and online forms and submissions.

The types of personal information collected include:

- personal details
- contact details
- employment information where relevant
- academic history
- statistical information about your prior education, schooling, reasons for enrolling,
- training, participation and assessment information
- fee and payment information

3. Storage and use of information

Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) will store all records containing personal information securely and take all reasonable security measures to protect the information collected from unauthorised access, misuse or disclosure. Personal information will be stored in paper-based files that are kept in locked filing cabinets and electronically stored in Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT)'s cloud based virtual server, Dropbox, which only authorized staff members have access to.

The personal information held by individuals will only be used to enable efficient student administration, provide information about training opportunities, and to maintain accurate and detailed student records of course participation, progress and outcomes.

Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) may use the personal information provided by an individual to market other internal products and services to them. An individual may opt out of being contacted for marketing purposes at any time. Information will not be passed onto any third party marketing companies without the prior written consent of the individual.

4. Disclosure of information

The personal information about students enrolled in a Course with Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) may be shared with the Australian Government and designated authorities, such as ASQA (the RTO's registering body), Australian Apprenticeship Centres (AACs), the Victorian Department of Education & Training or other state funding bodies as applicable and the National Centre for Vocational Education Research (NCVER). This includes personal details, contact details, course enrolment information, unit outcomes, AQF certification and statement issuance and information about training participation and progress.

Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) will not disclose an individual's personal information to another person or organisation unless:

- They are aware that information of that kind is usually passed to that person or organisation.
- The individual has given written consent.
- Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) believes on reasonable grounds that the disclosure is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious threat to the life or health of the individual concerned or another person.
- The disclosure is required or authorised by, or under, law.
- The disclosure is reasonably necessary for the enforcement of the criminal law or of a law imposing a pecuniary penalty, or for the protection of public revenue.

Any person or organisation to which information is disclosed is not permitted to use or disclose the information for a purpose other than for which the information was supplied to them.

5. Access to records

Individuals have the right to access or obtain a copy of the information that Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) holds about them including personal details, contact details and information relating to course participation, progress and AQF certification and statements of attainment issued.

Requests to access or obtain a copy of the records held about an individual must be made by contacting our office using the Request to Access Records Form. The individual must prove their identity to be able to access their records.

There is no charge for an individual to access the records that Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) holds about them; however there may be a charge for any copies made. Arrangements will be made within 10 days for the individual to access their records.

6. Correction to records

If an individual considers the records that Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) holds about them to be incorrect, incomplete, out of date or misleading, they can make a request in writing that the information be amended.

7. Complaints

Any individual wishing to make a complaint or appeal about the way information has been handled within Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT) can do so by following Kordon Institute of Technology (KIT)'s Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure.
